

Name: _____

1) What will blue, circular signs with white pictograms typically indicate?

- a) That a certain action in the area is prohibited
- b) That wearing a certain type of PPE in the area is mandatory
- c) That certain types of machinery are subject to faults
- d) That you should be aware of nearby hazards

2) What will triangular, yellow signs with black pictograms typically indicate?

- a) That there is a hazard nearby and caution should be taken/you should not proceed
- b) That the use of PPE in the area is prohibited
- c) That certain types of machinery are subject to faults
- d) That you should only enter with a companion

3) What will red circular signs with a diagonal line through them and black pictograms typically indicate?

- a) That the hazards present within the area are very serious
- b) That the use of PPE in this area will not stop hazards
- c) That certain actions are prohibited
- d) That your employer should accompany you on entry

4) What will square or rectangular, green signs with white pictograms typically indicate?

- a) That you are in a hazard-free environment and should not wear PPE
- b) That you should proceed with caution
- c) They will inform you that it is safe to use any machinery in the area
- d) They will indicate what emergency procedures are or an emergency location

5) What will square or rectangular, red signs with white pictograms typically indicate?

- a) That you are entering a seriously hazardous environment
- b) That you will be disallowed to carry out certain activities in this environment
- c) They will help you locate and identify firefighting equipment
- d) They will direct you to the nearest fire exit and assembly point