

201 4.1 Health and Safety Responsibilities

Name: _____

Task: Pair the sentence fragments

1. You could put other people at risk by looking after their own health and safety and taking care not to put other people at risk.
2. Employers have the primary responsibility for ask for clarification, help or instructions.
3. Legal responsibilities for workplace health and safety are set out in reducing the risks as effectively as they can.
4. If you're not sure about how to perform a task safely, you should someone else getting hurt.
5. Where workplace risks can't be eliminated, employers are responsible for making sure that the workplace is safe.
6. Employees are responsible for listen carefully to safety information provided by the employer.
7. To help them work safely, employees must the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004.
8. Failing to report an unsafe situation at work could result in not following agreed safe work practices.